1. Lindow (Z59)

During a two week period ending 30 September, 167 tanks had arrived, and additional armor was arriving after that date. All these are described only as being medium-heavy type tanks. Two unit numbers were noted: 331-34 (running in sequence from 34 to 93) and 157-32 (running in sequence from 32 to 81).

2. Luckenwalde (Z70)

According to information of 28-31 October, one third of the troops stationed in the Hindenburgschule are to receive furloughs to Russia. The APO is believed to be 52624.

Signal Corps troops are concerned solely with telephone line maintenance. Luckenwalde is connected by trunk line to Jüterbog.

Stalag Luckenwalde contains 500 men. A vehicle belonging to this

4. Jüterbog (E69)

A Stalin Orgeln unit observed in Jüterbog had five multiple rocket launchers painted light green. They were marked III 16623 and III 16633, with the following tactical sign painted on their fronts in blue:

5. A source who scouted the Brandenburg-Luckenwalde-Treuenbrietzen area on 2-3 November reports that there were no indications of large scale troop movements or regrouping in this area. Some small units were sighted in the woods around Treuenbrietzen. No military traffic was encountered during his return to Berlin on the night of 3 November (via Königswursterhausen (V02)).

6. [REDACTED] source states that in early November the Fourth Infantry Division joined armored divisions in the Luckau-Zossen area (A17-Z91).
